

Congratulations Tom Peabody!

RECIPIENT OF THE PARMA AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

2011 Pride Award

Each year, the Pride Award is given to an individual, business and organization that have made a positive impact in the community. Tom was nominated to receive this award as an individual who has contributed outstanding community service based on the following criteria:

Demonstrates an ongoing active role in the Parma Chamber service area, and in doing so has exhibited integrity, above average creativity, resource management...which has contributed significantly to the Chamber service area's viability, image, or quality of life.

Tom plays an important role not only in his fundraising efforts at Holy Family Home and Hospice, but also in the many external benefits to raise money for worthy causes that help families facing devastating illness and serious financial crisis, for churches, and for youth groups.

Tom will receive the Pride Award on January 29, 2011.
